

As a regular business traveler, I would prefer that cell phones NOT be allowed during flights. Even as we sit at a gate today, it tends to create situations where people speak very loudly and are unknowingly disruptive to those sitting so close.